“ Planning our trip alway with Dewsall was seamless. Our needs were very specific, wanting to both treat our team, as well as focus on strategy for the year ahead. Dewsalls in-house event managers nailed it without a glitch. It felt like a real retreat and the perfect place for planning and productivity.

Previous events

We were chosen by this prestigious publishing house to launch the Herefordshire Pomona. This striking event saw our Wainhouse decorated like a beautiful orchard, where we served stunning canapes and apple-based cocktails and sparkling Perry.

LandoverhostedjournalistsatDewsall for the world-famous Hay Festival. They enjoyed a weekend of gorgeous feasts by our in-house chefs, followed by a chauffeured night out to Dylan Jones' private party for GQ magazine.

A private stay for the top-tier management of the UK branch of two international companies, Dewsall bought together the cultures of both Wales and Japan in a curated stay for both key strategic planning and team bonding/relaxation.

We created a beautiful few days and were excited to find many similarities between Wales and Japan, from dragons to seaweed, all weaved throughout the menu planning, activity tasks, and room styling.

This talented design company chose Dewsall for their business retreat not once, but twice! Whisked away from London, their team enjoyed the absolute seclusion of Dewsall to plan for the year ahead, while later letting their hair down in our cellar nightclub!

We were honoured to host, this leading immersive theatre company at our home from home. They retreated to Dewsall between productions to both exhale from the last run of shows and brainstorm and plan for the next.

WELLNESS RETREATS

We have undertaken various retreats for different clients. The award-winning Arrigo Programme has been a returning customer with their first retreat being their press trip and subsequent events for high-end clients seeking top-end luxury and practitioners. We have also undertaken a gorgeous retreat for a well-known branding company that treated their employees to an incredibly special 3-day stay. The programme took in yoga, sound baths, non-alcoholic neotropics cocktail masterclass, and foraging, and for those who couldn't stay in the house, the lakeside field became a luxury camp.
